4. Identify all persons who might have knowledge of the facts and circumstances you have described. Include the address and telephone number for each person.

CHECK HERE ☐ IF ADDITIONAL PAGES ARE ATTACHED.

5. Attach copies of all documents you believe provide credible evidence to support your allegations. A newspaper article or other media report is not "credible evidence" if the article or report is offered by itself without some other reliable and competent form of proof, such as witness statements, records, documents, exhibits, concrete objects, etc.
